

Live Better U: Walmart & Sam's Club Education Program

Through Live Better U (LBU), Walmart and Sam's Club associates get access to education and training programs to help them excel in their jobs and create the career paths they want.

From foundational offerings like high school completion, to short-form programs including Business Analytics and Project Management, to college degrees, LBU meets associates wherever they are on their education journey. In partnership with Guild, LBU was designed to focus on completion rates rather than simply enrollment, and to remove the barriers that too often stop someone from getting a degree, specifically:

- Cost: Walmart pays 100% of tuition and books.
- Relevance: Degrees and certificates in high-demand job fields.
- Access: Full-time and part-time associates in our stores, clubs, fulfillment centers, and distribution centers have access to Live Better U on their first day working for us.
- Navigation: Associates receive support from an education coach on everything from selecting the right degree to academic and career guidance.

A path for everyone

Live Better U is a key ingredient in Walmart's culture of opportunity and our broader workforce strategy. The program drives increased talent attraction to the business, creates upward mobility for associates, and scales our internal talent pipelines. The impact includes:

- Retention: According to a September 2021 study by Lumina, Walmart's hourly associates participating in LBU leave the company at a rate 4x lower than non-participants.
- Promotion: The same study revealed that LBU participants are twice as likely to be promoted as non-participants.
