

VO/SOT BROADCAST SCRIPT – Walmart Afghanistan Response

((INTRO))

WALMART IS WORKING TO HELP MAKE A DIFFERENCE FOR AFGHAN REFUGEES AND VETERANS – IN THE WAKE OF THE U.S. WITHDRAWAL FROM AFGHANISTAN.

((VO))

THE RETAILER IS LOOKING TO THE PROVEN LEADERSHIP OF ITS AFGHAN AND VETERAN ASSOCIATES TO SUPPORT ONE ANOTHER AND INCOMING REFUGEES AS THEY ARRIVE IN THE COUNTRY.

THE WALMART FOUNDATION HAS COMMITTED A ONE-MILLION DOLLAR GRANT TO THREE NON-PROFITS THAT OFFER SUPPORT TO VETERANS AND HELP REFUGEES ENTERING THE COUNTRY.

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT OF WALMART CORPORATE AFFAIRS, DAN BARTLETT (BART-LET) – SAID THE DECISION TO AID REFUGEES WAS AN EASY ONE TO MAKE.

((SOT))

TIME CODE (INTERVIEW STYLE) 00:16-00:39

TIME CODE (FACING CAMERA) 00:56-01:19

As a company that is in every community almost throughout the country, we want to be there to help support not only our returning veterans from Afghanistan, but those who stood side by side over so many years, supporting, protecting, and fighting alongside our troops. And so we felt like this was one gesture, one way in which we could give back and help during this time of crisis.

((VO CONT))

WALMART CUSTOMERS WHO WANT TO HELP GIVE BACK CAN CHECK WALMART'S REGISTRY FOR GOOD.

###